Testimonials

“ Flashpacking Duo has a professional approach towards travelling and writing about it. Their documentation on social media and on the blog is something that definitely helps you get to know the destination and being prepared. Photos are high quality too. Wishing them more trip to come, more experience to gain and enjoy the ride.

- Lilla Szervátiusz, Budapest Festival & Tourism Centre, Hungary

“ We were thrilled to have Dominic and Claire write about our tour. The article was spot-on, and got a social media response which was much more significant that we imagined.

- Carolyn Bánfalvi, Co-founder of Taste Hungary
